700 ATTEND LATTER DAY SAINTS' RE-UNION HELD IN IRVINGTON

NILES WILL HAVE FULLY PROTECTED NIGHTWATCHMAN

Rathbun Circulating New Petition to Residents And Stores

H. B. Rathbun has been appointed by the president of the Niles Chamber of Commerce to circulate a petition among the residents of Niles in regard to the nightwatchman. He will attempt to get a sufficient number of signers to agree to pay a nightwatchman a fitting salary. The subscribers, if the required number are secured, will then select a committee to choose a man for the place, and see that he and the subscribers are thoroughly protected by insurance.

Many of the business houses that do not subscribe for the present officer, refuse to do so because he is not carrying protective insurance for his own protection and for the people who hire him. With this objection corrected, Rathbun thinks that most of the business firms of Niles will be willing to share the cost of a night patrolman.

Allen Shinn Is On Mid-Ship Cruise

Word has been received from Allen Shinn, a naval cadet of Annapolis, that he is aboard a mid-ship which is cruising the Mediterranean Sea. He writes that the scenery in that part of the hemisphere is most beautiful, and highly interesting. The cadets inspected the fort at Gibraltar while passing through the straits.

EXAMINATIONS ARE GIVEN IN NILES AND CENTERVILLE

People Crowd Courts To Take Examinations For Licenses

Fifty-three drivers were examined at the justice court in Niles last Thursday by Traffic Officer Lewis. A list of twenty-five statements are given for the driver to answer yes or no. Judge Silva, who graded the papers, is glad to say that no one who took the test failed to pass.

Besides this written quiz, the drivers are tested as to their physical and mental ability to drive.

Because of the large number of people who desire to take this examination, it is to be given all day Thursday instead of one-half day. Every Tuesday the examination is to be given at the Centerville justice court. Both judges are assisting the traffic officer.

The new law that requires all drivers whose licenses were issued before January 1, 1927, to renew them, goes into effect August 14, 1929.

Well Organized Program Is Scheduled For Conclave

OVER one hundred tents have been staked on the Irvington old grammar school grounds in which six hundred people from all over California will live for the next ten days. This is the annual re-union of the Northern California District of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. For the last thirty years they have held these re-unions and conferences at Irvington at this time.

Rev. J. P. Levitt, of Sacramento, the president of the northern California district of this organization, expects over 700 will attend their daily sessions which start tomorrow morning and continue until July 28. Besides a small city of tents, an auditorium tent, Sunday school tent, and kindergarten tents have been set up.

Apostle J. E. Curtis and Apostle Edward Gleiser, of the church headquarters in Independence, Missouri, have been obtained to speak at the conclave. Patriarch John F. Martin and Elder John W. Ruskin are the other two special speakers.

A recreational program is to be carried on every day from 8:45

BAND MEMBERS URGED TO ATTEND WEEKLY PRACTICE

Splendid work is being done at the Monday evening band practice held in the new shop building at the Washington Union High school, Centerville, reports the director, John E. Kimber. These rehearsals are to continue every Monday evening throughout the summer vacation.

Grammar school players are urged to take advantage of this opportunity of playing in a high school band. Kimber requests that all high school students who have instruments checked out for the summer must attend these weekly band practices. In some cases the instruments will have to be taken away from the players if they do not come to these rehearsals.

If twenty-five or more students turn out to Monday evening's practice, Mr. Kimber will make arrangements for the Washington Union High School Band to play at the Alameda County Farm Products show to be held in Hayward next month.

Mass Meeting Is Called For August 6

Lighting District To Be Discussed By Niles Residents

A mass meeting of Niles business men and property owners is to be held in the Egyptian ballroom on August 6 to discuss the forming of a lighting district. As this is to be an important meeting everyone is urged to be present to express their opinions in regard to this vital subject of erecting street lights in Niles.

The boundary of the district will have to be determined, as well as the number of lights to be installed. The lights will not be put on the electric light poles as the three on trial are, but regular street light poles will be installed. The question of taxes and other matters of importance are to be thrashed out at this meeting.

Representatives of the P. G. & E. company will speak in regard to the expense, size, and number of poles advisable to be installed in a given district.

In order to form a lighting district a petition must be signed by 25 resident property owners in the determined district who say they are in favor of it and wish an election called to settle the matter. This is then presented to the county board of supervisors who call a special election if there are no protests heard. Any one who lives within the said boundary of the lighting district who is a voter may cast a ballot even though not a property owner.

The big question now is whether the three lights placed on First street are to stay or be taken out.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bendel entertained Mrs. Bendell's brother, Vernon Handley, of Modesto, and family, on Sunday, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stevenson and family, of Oakland.

FIRE DEPARTMENT EXTINGUISHES FIRE AT WELFARE HOME

Residents Must Have A Permit To Light Fires

The Niles Fire Department was called out to a fire at the Child Welfare Home on the Niles-Centerville highway, Saturday noon. Several berry bushes and the trees were scorched but no real damage was done. The Centerville fire truck also responded to the call.

One of the boys of the home was out burning some rubbish when the flames caught on the adjacent dry weeds which soon got out of the boy's control. If the fire department had not responded so quickly, three of the out-buildings which lay in the path of the fire would have burned down.

H. B. Rathbun says this fire was a good example of people lighting fires without a permit. In case the home was burnt, it would receive no insurance as it did not have a permit to burn rubbish or dry grass. Any one who wishes to do this during the summer months and who lives out of the Niles Fire district must secure a permit from H. B. Rathbun, state fire marshal. Those who live within the Niles Fire District may secure one from A. M. Alves in Abrott's Hardware Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Duarte and daughter, Vernee Martin, spent three days at the home of Mr. Duarte's mother, Mrs. J. R. Fontes, of Niles.

Water Table At Its Worst; Mokelumne Will Bring Aid

By CHRIS RUNCKEL
Secretary Alameda County
Water District.

It is true that the underground water table throughout the Alameda county water district, particularly below the fault, is at the lowest level it has ever reached. In spite of the release secured this year. For the next few weeks it will go even lower. However, relief is near at hand. By August 1, only two weeks more, the East Bay utility district will have finished the pipe line into the upper San Leandro reservoir and then a larger quantity of the Mokelumne water can be used in supplying the East Bay cities. It is expected that then sixty million gallons of water daily will be brought from the Mokelumne. This should

HOLLY SUGAR STARTS RUN AUG. 10

Plant Will Run 100 Days; $100,000 Improvements Made This Year

The Holly Sugar Corporation at Alvarado will begin its annual run of sugar beets on or about August 10. An unusually long run of 100 days is expected this year. Over 175 men will be employed in the plant. This report was given this week by Superintendent W. H. Ciegler.

Over 7,000 acres of sugar beets have been contracted. More than one-third of these are grown in Washington Township. The remainder is shipped in from the region around the Sacramento river.

Extensive improvements have been made in the corporation's plant this year. A complete pulp drier plant has been constructed, and a new power generator has been installed. A warehouse is also being built, the work being done by E. E. Dias, of Niles. The improvements cost $100,000.

Many men of this township will be able to get employment at this plant for over three months.

BOX FACTORY IS SUED FOR INFRINGEMENT

According to confirmed report, George Parker and Charles Evans, both of Riverside, Calif., have filed suit in the federal court in San Francisco, charging the International Wood Products Company, of Niles, and the Customs House Planing Corporation, of Monterey, with infringement of patents. The plaintiffs charged the companies used a bundle binding and tying machine in infringement of rights owned by Parker and Evans who asked that all profits made from the device be turned over to them.

Office Manager Crawford, of the local box factory, states that his plant is fully protected by bonds, and that furthermore they had purchased the machine from the Ebey Manufacturing Company, of San Francisco, who should be the one sued for selling this patented machine.

THE LEAVEN IS WORKING

SOME months ago the writer foretold an early reaction against cigarette manufacturers' advertising featuring our girls as addicts to the nicotine-soaked product. It has come sooner than we had thought.

We predicted in our article that if given sufficient rope, they certainly would hang themselves. Already they feel the noose tightening about their throats, and are making a wild effort to disentangle their useless necks from the hemp of public indignation.

Fargo, North Dakota, for instance, acting through its city council, has ordered bill-board owners to cover all posters picturing the American girl smoking or endorsing the use of cigarettes.

Feeling the wrath of public opinion, D. B. Ramsey, secretary of the Northern States Outdoor Advertising Association, recently sent a telegram to a large eastern poster company threatening to cancel all cigarette contracts if the objectionable practice of soliciting and encouraging, through advertising, our young girls to begin the habit of smoking was not stopped.

And the other day, Senator Smoot, of Utah, moved in the senate to put the tobacco business under the pure food act, thus giving congress control over the industry. It was a move to curb the avariciousness of the cigarette maker, who, to swell dividends, would tear down the standards of the American home and curse the fairest and grandest thing in all life—the reverence, the tribute, the admiration, the love we have for girlhood, for womanhood!

It is not a question of opinion, of custom that makes us either approve or condemn the habit of cigarette smoking among girls and women. The weed contains nicotine that very soon soils the beauty of the feminine addict. It coarsens her. It gives her a hard look, a defiant air—yes, to be very frank, much like that which marked the woman of the underworld that the past generation of men knew so well. It is really difficult for a man of middle age to see a woman or girl smoking without recalling the tenderloin of another day.

A girl who begins the habit deliberately is very unwise. She will soon regret it. The habit is tenacious, and not easily broken. Men very often encourage their girl companions to take a puff. Often the habit is begun on a dare, or to be "a regular guy." While men, either thoughtlessly or for base motives, urge a girl to smoke with whom they are "keeping company," seldom do they care to marry a miss that has the cigarette habit.

A girl's power lies in her charm. There can be no charm in a girl whose breath, whose clothes reek with cigarette smoke. There can be no charm in features coarsened by nicotine. There can be no charm in a girl who knows that she is violating the conventions of American life. It is not even clever to ape the worst in continental Europe—to say nothing of taking up the diversion of the woman of the old tenderloin.

The Township Register believes in the good sense of the average American girl. It believes the fad is passing. It believes the tendency is back to the first principles of wholesome America. The Register believes an awakening conscience is forcing the cigarette maker to keep within the bounds of good taste. It believes that public opinion is beginning to move and will eventually force the feminine smoker from the stage of American life and again enthrone the old-fashioned girl, who for countless generations has inspired man to deeds of mercy and valor—place her again upon that pedestal of loveliness and virtue from which the tobacco trust would drag her down to its mean level for dirty dollars!

DROPPING their plane gently to earth in a perfect landing at 2:13 p. m. Friday, July 12th, at Culver City Airport near Los Angeles, Loren Mendell and "Pete" Reinhardt, co-pilots of the Buhl Wright-motored, air sedan "Angeleno", completed the greatest endurance flight in history, establishing a record of 246 hours, 43 minutes and 32 seconds in the air.

Physically exhausted themselves, but with their motor in perfect condition, the flyers were brought down after nearly a week and a half of continuous flight because of the accumulation of foreign substance on the stabilizer which made further flying hazardous.

Both flyers paid high tribute to Richfield Gasoline and Richlube Motor Oil which they had selected after exhaustive tests and which made possible the perfect performance of their motor throughout the flight.

Carrying an over-load of almost seven hundred pounds in excess of the regular "pay load" of the Buhl air sedan, their total gasoline consumption was less than twelve gallons per hour of flying time, while their oil averaged less than one quart an hour—an almost phenomenal record best expressed in Reinhardt's words, "The oil gauge might just as well have been painted. It didn't drop a pound of pressure during the entire flight."

Once again Richfield has helped make air history. The same qualities that made it the choice for the "Question Mark" army flight, first of the great endurance achievements; the selection of Captain Wilkins for his thrilling dash over the North Pole and the choice of winners in many other speed and endurance records are carried on in this epochal eleven days among the clouds—more than 22,000 miles of continued flight.

Use Richfield and Richlube in your own car—the ideal combination for everyday driving—better by actual test.

Nation-Wide Spelling Bee Is Proposed, Via Radio

Josephine Humphrey To Represent Alameda County

Miss Josephine Humphrey, of Irvington, Alameda county champion speller, will compete in the spelling bee to be held at the fair in Sacramento to win state honors. If she becomes the California champion speller, she will contest with New York, and possibly with the whole nation. Miss Humphrey's principal text book is Webster's Dictionary.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover will be requested by the State Agricultural Society to prepare a list of 100 words for a nationwide radio spelling contest to be held during the California Diamond Jubilee State Fair and Western Exposition the first week in September. It is proposed to have the various states which desire to enter the contest select their best high school speller, either at their state fairs or by some other method. The winners in the respective states would then go to a radio broadcasting station in their own states and spell the words as pronounced through the microphone. The list of words prepared by Mrs. Hoover would be sent under seal to the radio station to be held until the hour designated for the contest. Arrangements are now being made for a New York and California radio contest. The New York State Fair will hold a high school contest this year just before the opening of the California State Fair and a challenge has been sent by California for a match between the high school winners of the two states. As soon as the date is definitely determined other states will be invited to join in.

Jewell Anderson
Entertains Friends

A very delightful little dance was given at Memorial Hall on Friday evening, July 12, complimentary to Miss Jewell Anderson, and in honor of her eighteenth birthday. About fifty young people were present, many of them being school friends of the honor guest.

Dancing was enjoyed until about midnight when delicious refreshments were served. It was a very happy occasion and Miss Anderson, whose charming personality

FIRE DEPARTMENT
PUTS OUT THREE
FIRESNon-Firemen Are Asked
To Keep Off Truck
In Action

The Centerville Fire Department answered a call every day last week-end. They helped to put out the grass fire at the Child Welfare Home, Saturday noon.

They were called to a large fire at the Tyson place Sunday. It was started from a grass fire which was made without a permit. The drier, shed, and all the trays were burnt, which is a loss of $1,000 to the Tysons. As they were out of the Niles Fire District, they had to call the Centerville department.

On Monday, they were called to put out a grass fire on the Stivers' ranch near Newark. It was soon extinguished.

Frank Madruga wishes to request all boys and men to keep off the truck, as the driver is responsible for them and is therefore liable for suit in case they are injured. Only assigned firemen are permitted to ride on the fire trucks as they are covered by insurance.

Systematic Giving Is Needed For Children

This is the season of many calls. They may want one thing or they may want the other. It is well to ask their badge of authority. It is understood that some one has been representing the "Welfare League" in some places. Be sure they have the right to do so.

The money is greatly needed for the poor little unfortunates since Oakland has shut her money bags on the lower four townships. It means that we must care for 59 or 60 children.

How do we wish to do it? In the old Dickens style that made the poor orphans sick with terror, or in a broad, open, wise manner that will produce fine men and women? Think it over, and send some money to Mrs. Frank Dusterberry or Mrs. F. Bunting. It is wise to give systematically, so much each month. Every cent can be accounted for in the ablest way the board knows.

LADIES MEET WITH
MRS. G. LOWRIE
TO SEW

As Mrs. Carrie Emerson is away on her vacation, the meeting of the Welfare Club scheduled to meet at her home, Monday, was held at the home of Mrs. George Lowrie instead.

It was a small gathering due to the absence of those on their vacations.

The ladies present spent the afternoon sewing garments for the children in the adopted homes. Mrs. A. A. Hatch reported that 388 garments had been made or made over by the Welfare Club Number 1, and presented to the children of their home and in foster homes during the past year.

It was also reported that Washington Township's quota for the maintenance of the Child Welfare Home had been paid up to August. The club wishes to thank all of the organizations who have kept their donations paid up.

Mrs. Lowrie, the hostess, served refreshments to the ladies before the meeting disbanded.

C. F. D. WILL HAVE
DAY AND NIGHT
ATTENDANTS

At the meeting of the Centerville Fire Commissioners, Tuesday evening, it was decided to employ two men to take charge of the fire department. There is to be a man on duty day and night as soon as sleeping quarters can be built above the building.

They decided to ask the board of supervisors of Alameda county to let them have the use of a sprinkler full of water at all fires where there are no water hydrants.

The Centerville department will continue to give aid temporarily to the homes in Niles which are not in the fire district. They hope something can be done in the near future in regards to this present situation.

Captain Fred Rogers intends to make his department one of the best in the township. It receives many compliments for its splendid service and efficiency in this community.

MAIN STREET TO BE SURVEYED SOON FOR
NEW PAVINGMajority of the Property
Owners Sign
Petition

According to the latest reports most of the residents on both sides of Main street have signed the petition to pave the entire highway from curb to curb from Sack City street to Central avenue. The property owners will have to pay for about eighteen feet of pavement on their side of the highway. Alameda county will resurface the present pavement and pave six feet on each side. This will make Main street nearly seventy-five feet wide.

The surveyors have started to survey the street, and construction will begin soon after the contract is awarded. No definite date can yet be determined.

DELIVERED

Fully Equipped,
Nothing More to Buy

PRICED TO GIVE YOU GREATEST VALUE

CONSIDER the delivered, fully equipped price of this charming Nash "400" Sedan, and you'll see immediately it is a car you certainly should consider, when you get ready to buy.

For here, at a delivered, fully equipped price much lower than you would expect to pay for a car of its size and character, is an Advanced Six "400" Sedan with the Twin Ignition, high compression, valve-in-head, 7-bearing motor—with the beauty and style that have made the "400" a heavy favorite among all the year's new cars—and with a host of other costly-car features never available before in this price field.

Such features, for instance, as Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication which oils 29 chassis points at the pressure of a pedal. And alloy steel springs individually designed for its size and weight, correlated with Houdaille, double-action, outboard-mounted, hydraulic shock absorbers. And the "world's easiest steering"!

These are only a few of the features of this Nash "400", but they give you an idea of its greater value and the extraordinarily fine performance you may expect from it.

The delivered, fully equipped price on this, and on all "400" models is lower, for the simple reason that all this equipment—Bijur Centralized Chassis Lubrication, Houdaille hydraulic shock absorbers, bumpers, spare tire lock, and tire cover—is installed at the factory and included in the factory price. Some dealers charge as much as $50 to $60 extra for bumpers alone.

It is said Miss Bow was never better than in "Dangerous Curves."

VACATION SCHOOL
SUCCESS

Handiwork Exhibit Shown
At Congregational Church Friday

The auditorium of the Congregational church was packed with parents, friends, and the pupils of the Niles Vacation Church School, Friday evening.

The program was opened by the regular worship service. The Bible story and a habit story were told by Estelle Martenstein and Frances Hepler, respectively.

The hit of the program was the dramatization of the story of the "Good Samaritan" by the junior class. No one seemed to be in a hurry and the play went off splendidly. It was remarkable to hear this class recite their lengthy scripture verses.

The story of Ruth was dramatized by the intermediate class. A world goodwill play, "Goodwill, the Magician" was presented by the school as a whole. This concluded a very fine program.

The exhibit of handiwork was also very good. This year the Vacation Church School had ten morning sessions. The daily average attendance was twenty-five and six teachers.

A new feature of the school this year was the addition of a mission study class to the curriculum taught by Miss Breiner, a returned missionary from Brazil. On Friday the pupils collected a neat sum to send to some mission in the manner which it is done in Africa.

H. B. Rathbun has been called to Mount Shasta this week to fight fires in his district near Reddings. All state fire marshals are held for one week of fire fighting in their specified districts.

Eva Teeter is now employed in the Southern Pacific office in San Francisco.

Through the efforts of Supervisor Richmond and Roadmaster Joe Gomes, the streets of Decoto are in a better condition than they have ever been before. The scrapers have improved, graded, and scraped many of the streets. Gravel has been spread on the main streets.

It is not only in Decoto, but in all of the towns of this township that the county roads have been greatly improved. The work is being done on the installment plan, each town receiving its share of road improvements.

Preaching is one thing; good business policy is another. Men find things to criticize in preaching; only a dumb-bell opposes the safe and sane business proposition.

If you study your newspaper as you should, then take note of the great number who are overtaken in crime, folly, and other wrongdoing. Set the number down in your memorandum-book each day for a month. The number will astonish you—and the sad total will be a shouting, thundering argument for right living.

There is absolutely no excuse for doing wrong—for it is the poorest business policy in the world; why? because it leads inevitably to disaster.

Take intoxicating drink, for instance. Over-indulgence, or, for that matter, taking it under circumstances save under advice of a good doctor for illness—is very, very poor business policy. Why? Because its victims are legion.

If cheating, defrauding and falsifying were not wrong morally, it would remain one of the worst business policies. Such an operator may apparently succeed for a time, but will surely be exposed in time, and bring sorrow to the perpetrator.

The price of a clear conscience is beyond doubt effort well expended. Compared with the dividends reaped, the clear conscience pays more than the best stocks on the market today. To maintain a spotless character and reputation is to have the best credit and backing in the world.

Every man knows right from wrong by native intuition. Every man has been at the forks of the road. It has always paid to turn to the right. There is no better business.

The square shooter is the happy man; the crook does not know the meaning of happiness because always apprehensive; he is never sure of being safe; his restlessness becomes self-torture in course of time. The best business policy in the world is—the Golden Rule.

PRODUCE DUMPING FORBIDDEN BY NEW LAW

Another law concerning the farmers of California has been signed by the governor to become effective August 14, 1929. This law forbids the produce and poultry dealer to abandon, destroy, discard, or dump farm products received for sale on commission without first securing a permit in writing, from horticultural commissioner or health officer.

It further states that a full, true and complete copy of such permit, and detailed statement, shall be served upon the consignor personally or by mail on the day issued.

In any investigation of produce dealers' records by the Department of Agriculture in the future, such permits and statements will be required to support any claims that produce was dumped, abandoned or destroyed.

MOTORIST MUST OBEY FIVE-DAY APPEARANCE LAW

The motorist who has been inclined to ignore the five-day notice to appear in court for a traffic violation will now find his path beset by complications. On the other hand, to prevent enforcement for revenue, the motorist is permitted to secure a change of venue to secure a fair trial.

Any person who, for a period of fifteen or more days, willfully violates his signed promise to appear for an arrest shall be reported to the Division of Motor Vehicles and thereafter no operators' card, chauffeur's license, registration certificate or license plates shall be issued to such violator except upon certification by the judge that his case has been adjudicated in court.

HIGHWAYS FREED OF GLARING HEADLIGHTS PLAN FORMULATED

Driving with glaring or dazzling headlights any place in California will be a misdemeanor when the new motor vehicle law becomes effective August 14. Citations will be handed to all drivers with such lights after that date and court appearance will be required.

The new law permits an officer to stop any car when he has reasonable grounds for believing it has glaring or dazzling lights. Such driver may be required to submit to a screen test, and if the lights are found to be improperly focused the officer shall issue notice of arrest. The offender must have his lights adjusted before appearing in court. The punishment thereafter shall be up to the discretion of the judge.

The motor chief advises all drivers to have their lights checked immediately at one of the official adjusting stations.

Western Auto Supply Offers Camp Equipment

Check the Battery Before Starting on Your Auto Trip

There is no other recreation that offers the same amount of enjoyment, relaxation, and complete independence as does auto-camping, declares D. L. Overhulser, manager of Western Auto Supply's store in Hayward.

The man who owns his own equipment is his own boss. In addition to the complete independence that a good camping outfit gives, it offers an economic means of enjoying the country. Good equipment will repay for itself in money saved on hotel and restaurant bills in a short time.

"How's your automobile battery?" asks Overhulser. A storage battery should have sufficient capacity to furnish power to all of the electrical units of the car and when it becomes time to buy a new battery, the car-owner should come to the Western Auto Supply store in Hayward before making his purchase. Western Giant and Wizard batteries are full capacity batteries and are built to stand a lot of abuse.

"We urge motorists to assure uninterrupted enjoyment on vacation trips by installing an economical and trouble-saving battery. Additional savings can be made by trading in old batteries as part payment on new ones."

Dr. Lutz Writes of Unique Plan Of Raising $1,000 For Church

Friends of Dr. C. A. Lutz, of Irvington, who left recently for an extensive eastern trip, will be interested in the letter addressed to Rev. J. R. Stevenson, former pastor of the Irvington Community church, as quoted below.

The letter reads:

Chicago, Ill., July 13, 1929.

Dear Mr. Stevenson:

I have just stolen away from the lobby of the hotel which is a constant scene of gaiety and entertainment, in order to endeavor to recall some of the leading features of the trip just ended.

We took the delightful coast route and then east to La Verne on the Foothill Boulevard and on to Pomona and Chino. In this way we did not have to go right through Los Angeles. We stayed a few days in Chino, renewing old acquaintances, and decided to visit a friend who had sold his fine orange grove and invested the proceeds in a 40-acre patch of desert land along the Salton Sea.

Our course from Redlands, Beaumont, Banning and Whitewater, led through Palm Springs, Dry Camp, Indio, Coachella, Thermal to Mecca. I mention these as places to avoid. The region around Mecca is so hot, dry, dusty and below sea level. Thence on to Blythe over a road that recalled the trying conditions of a trip we made as long ago as the year 1917. All this route that we have mentioned, through Blythe and Ehrenberg to Phoenix is one that is filled with sad retrospections and hence we do not recommend it. Neither would we rave with delight over the abominable road we were sent over on our way to Carlsbad Caves in southeastern New Mexico. This was from Las Cruces to Alamogordo and Cloudcroft where for a whole stretch of eight miles, and another eleven, we crawled along a slippery, dangerous road at the rate of five miles an hour!

Carlsbad Caves

However, when we reached our destination, which was the most stupendously astonishing underground caverns known as Carlsbad Caves, and the most gigantic cathedrals and colossal structures and the vastest halls under the earth known to man, the immensity and dazzling beauty and multitudinous wonders of what we saw, made us feel well repaid for all the hardships we had suffered in getting there. But this is a subject which well deserves a separate letter and we will pass on to a continuation of our voyage into the great city of Chicago. The main object of our journey having been accomplished—namely the taking of our grandson, Charles Runner, away from his cowboy home in order to return him, after his absence of a year and a month, to his parents—we drove, at the rate of 200 and 300 miles a day, through blinding rainstorms until we were met about a hundred and fifty miles out of Chicago by Mr. and Mrs. Runner in their new and speedy car into which we were hurried while their chauffeur took the old faithful Hup back home.

Since then, our lives in this well conducted hotel have been as in another world, or as though we were admitted within the realms of fairy land. I have purposely avoided touching upon, or even referring to, various interesting events transpiring on this unusually wonderful trip of ours because I know if I begin, my pen would not cease recording until there would not be sufficient space for me to set forth in any adequate terms a brief reference to what I know will interest you immensely, and of which I can assure you I feel prouder than of anything that I can remember.

A $1,000 Plan

The circumstance to which I allude is the marvelous piece of rescue work, if I may so call it, performed by my worthy and noble son-in-law, Mr. Louis O. Runner. The pastor of the Austin Boulevard Christian church, a usually cheerful soul, happening to be seen in a temporarily doleful mood by Mr. Runner, was what led to it all. The debt of a thousand dollars hanging over the little church was disturbing the pastor. There seemed to be little or no prospect of reducing it. And Mr. Runner suggested a plan: "If a hundred members will pay ten dollars a plate," he proposed, "I'll furnish the banquet and all the attending expenses, providing all the proceeds are given to the church." Matters were quickly arranged, an organization secured, officers elected, talent searched for and the machinery began to move.

The event took place on Tuesday, June 4, and celebrated my son Louis' birthday. My daughter, Mary, and her husband, Harry Brooks, both of them professionally talented musicians, and my daughter, Julia, acknowledged as one of Chicago's cleverest and most accomplished hostesses, and all the other talent comprising some of the most brilliant and able orators, singers and instrumentalists, gave their services without charge and the result was that the grand climax of the occasion was the presentation to the church of a check made out for one thousand dollars.

Say! Did your honorable scribbler come in for any of the applause? Oh my yes! Not only he but his worthy better half who had been described as beating it at a fifty-mile gait, all the way from San Francisco in order to be here on time. (Something like the Midnight Ride of Paul Revere.) And so we were led right up on the platform in order to be presented—but mercifully we were not requested to open our mouths. Mr. and Mrs. Runner Sr., who had just arrived in order to attend a convention, were present part of the time. Mrs. Runner being in time to be introduced along with us. And did we get any applause? Well we began to wonder whether it would be an unpardonable thing for us to imagine for the moment that we were the whole cheese. Oh yes, I forgot to remark that the cause of the attention and applause being directed so strongly for awhile to us was some reference made by the pastor to our trip being made a year ago with a sick boy and our return now with his mother's heart's delight, and his father's proudest joy in almost perfect strength and health. But I must draw this letter to a close. It is already quite long and when I enclose the menu and program, will form a rather bulky package.

Chicago Great City

Chicago is a great city. I very strongly suspect it will eventually prove to be the biggest and most important in the world. That is the way it impresses me. It just seems as if anything on earth can be had here. In the market I see all the fruits of summer. Where on earth do they get them? I certainly don't know. Also I see gorgeous flowers. Where in the world do they come from. There are plenty of them. Flowers seem to be everywhere. Crowds. Beautiful shops. Strikingly unusual architecture. Lovely homes. Luxury, power, plenty, ambition, wealth, abundance. I am going to enjoy it all, and get all that is possible out of this paradisaical life in fairy-land, until I am ready to leave, and then I will be glad and satisfied, and perhaps a little anxious, to get back again among other dear friends in beautiful California, the land—THE land, of sunshine, fruit and flowers. With kindest regards to all inquiring friends, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

C. A. LUTZ.
